

Horace Mann Elementary School

Diana Pentovich

Grade 3 / 2018-19

DREAM : ASTRONAUT

DIANA'S JOURNEY

Diana demonstrated deep understanding in all the subjects and consistently exceeded grade expectations. Other than studies she actively participated in extra curricular activities.

September

October

November

Created her own colorful dictionary.

Improved gardening skills

Participated in the singing competition.

Was a part of the winning team in the bowling competition.

Completed all her homework on time.

Did well in all the subjects.

Helped her classmates in the pottery class.

Annual function-Best dressed girl

Demonstrated critical thinking in team building activities.

SKILLS & TESTIMONIALS

COLLABORATION

Specific ways in which students are expected to behave.

CRITICAL THINKING

Formulating your own opinions and drawing your own conclusions.

CREATIVE THINKING

Student's response to open-ended and engaging questions

PRESENTATION SKILLS

Delivering effective and engaging presentations to audiences.

LEADERSHIP

Skill to guide other members of the team and lead them.

"Diana find just as much joy in building the sculpture as she do in appreciating what other students have built" - Art Instructor

"Diana demonstrated exceptional language comprehension and inventive thinking." - Teacher

Diana gave exceptional response to all the questions asked. She was an inspiration to her peers who were hesitating to answer before.

"Thanks Diana for answering my stupid questions about rubik's cube you brought to the school " - Peer Student

"Diana helped members of her team in the competition to complete a group task. Consequently her team was a winner" - Sports Instructor

STUDENT'S WORK & COMMENTS

- Diana did all her homework before the deadlines.
- She improved and performed really well in the last term's vocabulary test.

- Made exceptional sketches.
- Diana's paintings were displayed in the school exhibition.

- All the best pots were made by students in her group.
- Diana's group made as many pots as possible.

ENGLISH

She make mistakes in spellings but has improved from the last term.

75%

ARTS

Diana made exquisite free hand sketches

95%

SOCIAL STUDIES

Diana has done a decent job in her exam. She needs to improve her memorizing skills.

70%

MATHEMATICS

Diana improved a lot this term. She still needs to work on multiplications.

85%

SCIENCE

Diana has done remarkably well in the subject. Her doubts helped other students as well.

95%

COMPUTER SCIENCE

Diana is one of the toppers in the subject. She can be good computer engineer.

98%

GROWING POINTS & PARENT/GUARDIAN COMMENTS

Feedback regarding the student's growing points. Summarize it in bullet point form and elaborate on each point during the parent/teacher conference.

- Great attitude towards learning
- Expresses ideas clearly
- Improved in mathematics. Need a bit more push.
- Need improvement in memorizing skills

